

ACA 2017 Conference & Expo

March 16–19

Pre-conference Learning Institutes: March 15–16

*Moscone West Convention Center
San Francisco, CA*

Much more than a conference, this is a show of solidarity.

The decision to move the 2017 Conference & Expo was a bold move that spoke volumes about the counseling profession and the leadership of ACA. Now more than ever, we must unite in our efforts to protect the integrity of this great profession and the essential roles counselors play in communities nationwide. Join us in San Francisco.

With hundreds of timely education sessions (organized into Tracks for your convenience), no other professional counseling conference can deliver the range of topics of the depth of knowledge that ACA delivers. Attendees can earn up to 17.5 CEs during core conference days (Friday–Sunday); and up to 35.5 CEs with Pre-conference Learning Institutes (Wednesday–Thursday).

Highlights include:

- Opening Keynote speaker Irvin D. Yalom, MD, one of the most influential mental health professionals of our time, author of popular “teaching stories” and “teaching novels”
- Special sessions addressing ramifications of Tennessee legislation and attacks on the ACA Code of Ethics
- Special sessions addressing lessons learned and professional advocacy in light of Tennessee legislation—defining channels, methods, and techniques to navigate future challenges
- The Career Center (Job boards, career consults, private practice consults, and employment opportunities)
- ACA/American Red Cross Disaster Mental Health Fundamentals Training
- Client-Focused Research Series; Grad Students & New Professionals Only Series; Round Table sessions; and more
- Special events such as the First-Timer’s Orientation, the Opening Night Celebration, the International Student Panel and Reception, and the National Awards Ceremony
- The amazing Expo, featuring the latest and greatest products and services for counseling professionals
