FROM THE EDITOR

Preparing Manuscripts With Central and Salient Humanistic Content
Mark B. Scholl

PRACTICE, THEORY, AND APPLICATION

Quantifying Emotional Intelligence: The Relationship Between Thinking Patterns and Emotional Skills
Judith E. Cox and Darwin B. Nelson

Using Existential–Humanistic Approaches in Counseling Adolescents With Inappropriate Sexual Behaviors
Mark S. Parrish, Rebecca P. Stanard, and Debra C. Cobia

Feminism Lives On: Incorporating Contemporary Feminism Into Counseling Practice With Families and Youth
Wendy Charkow Bordeau, Michele Kielty Briggs, A. Renee Staton, and Suzan Zuljani Wasik

Rethinking Client Resistance: A Narrative Approach to Integrating Resistance Into the Relationship-Building Stage of Counseling
Joshua M. Gold

Helping Counselor Trainees Overcome Barriers to Seeking Help
John McCarthy

Moving From Victim to Survivor of Cultural Violence: A Conceptual Model
Carmen F. Salazar and Challon Casto

(continued on next page)
RESEARCH

A Preliminary Investigation of School Counselor Beliefs Regarding Important Educational Issues
Marc A. Grimmett and Pamela O. Paisley

Benefits of a Holistic Group Counseling Model to Promote Wellness for Girls at Risk for Deliquency:
An Exploratory Study
Sondra Smith-Adcock, Stephanie M. Webster, Lindsay G. Leonard, and Jennifer L. Walker

Guidelines for Authors