REVIEWS FOR

Fourth Edition

The Professional COUNSELOR

Portfolio, Competencies, Performance Guidelines, and Assessment

Dennis W. Engels, Casey A. Barrio Minton, Dee C. Ray, and Associates

“This book is a unique contribution to the profession and a ‘must have’ for all counselors. Students will find it invaluable as they move through their graduate programs. Counselor educators will find the guidelines very helpful when designing programs, courses, and syllabi because they provide a means to objectively assess the skills students should possess. In addition, this is a helpful tool for practitioners seeking to assess their skills and effectiveness in working with clients.”

—Lynn Linde, EdD
Loyola College in Maryland
ACA President, 2009–2010

“The Professional Counselor does the work for you! This wonderful resource operationalizes the standards of the profession through an easy-to-follow structure. Counselor educators involved in creating syllabi, curricula, and self-evaluation will find this a valuable reference source. Additionally, students seeking concrete examples of what counseling looks like in practice will be pleased with the comprehensive checklists provided. Phenomenal!”

—Marcheta P. Evans, PhD
University of Texas at San Antonio
ACA President-Elect, 2009–2010

“This text offers the consumer, across various settings and specialties, a ‘living’ portfolio that affords a conceptual map for personal and professional development. Thus, it is an educational companion in the form of a progressive and detailed chronicle of ongoing assessment related to specific objectives, knowledge acquisition, learner outcomes, and appraisal. The Professional Counselor is as comprehensive as it is practical!”

—Thomas R. Scofield, PhD, LPC, NCC
University of Wisconsin Oshkosh