Reviews for

Experiential Activities for Teaching Multicultural Competence in Counseling

Edited by Mark Pope, Joseph S. Pangelinan, and Angela D. Coker

“This book is truly extraordinary and is a must have for both veteran and new counselor educators. It is thoughtfully organized, user-friendly, and simply a text that you must have within arm’s reach at all times. I can honestly say, ‘if it’s not in here . . . it just doesn’t exist.’ Thanks to this editing team and their top-notch authors, we now have the resources to train others to change the world, one day at a time, one person at a time. Bravo!”

—Colleen R. Logan, PhD
Program Coordinator
Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling Program
Walden University
ACA President, 2008–2009

“This is the text that I have always needed for teaching multicultural courses and workshops. The array of activities and handouts is outstanding and provides endless ideas to keep teaching fresh and alive, while driving the most critical concepts home.”

—Allen E. Ivey, EdD, ABPP
Distinguished University Professor (Emeritus)
University of Massachusetts, Amherst

“These activities promote self-reflection, inspire action, and encourage advocacy against oppression and discrimination. Wide ranging and deeply engaging, this book is a must for everyone who teaches counseling or handles diversity training for organizations.”

—Jane Goodman, PhD
Professor Emerita, Counseling
Oakland University
ACA President, 2001–2002

“The extensive coverage in this text of groups discussed, topics addressed, and authors who contributed material is masterful. Readers will find activities for all levels of student development. This book fills a need for all counselor educators.”

—Don C. Locke, EdD
Distinguished Professor Emeritus
NC State University
ACES President, 2000–2001