Reviews for
Culturally Responsive Counseling With Latinas/os

Patricia Arredondo • Maritza Gallardo-Cooper
Edward A. Delgado-Romero • Angela L. Zapata

“The most accurate, detailed, and up-to-date coverage of the Latino experience in the U.S. that I have ever read. The breadth and depth of Culturally Responsive Counseling With Latinas/os is more than impressive; it is unparalleled. This book is ideal for multicultural counseling and ethnic studies courses across the undergraduate, master's level, and doctoral curriculum in counseling and all mental health fields.”

—Joseph G. Ponterotto, PhD
Fordham University

“This is a timely, stunningly significant contribution to the growing body of evidence-based literature on one of the most important populations in the U.S. This comprehensive overview is vibrant, cutting-edge, and indispensable for mental health professionals who want to be culturally competent.”

—Melba Vasquez, PhD, ABPP
Former President
American Psychological Association
Independent Practice, Austin, Texas

“This book demonstrates the clinical expertise needed to practice with Latina/o communities, and is a significant advancement in providing effective, state-of-the-art counseling with this population. The authors have expanded the definition of la familia to encompass relevant psychosocial, educational, and mental health issues.”

—Joseph M. Cervantes, PhD, ABPP
California State University, Fullerton

“This is now the foundational book for individual counseling with Latinas/os. It is based on solid research and clinical practice, and the chapters on assessment and treatment are outstanding. It is a must for every counselor's desk.”

—Allen E. Ivey, EdD, ABPP
Distinguished University Professor (Emeritus)
University of Massachusetts, Amherst
Courtesy Professor
University of South Florida, Tampa