

Consent to Use of Photographic Images

By submitting a photograph to the Capturing Counseling Priorities Photo Project, I grant the American Counseling Association (ACA) permission to use, reproduce, edit, publish, display, and distribute the photograph, now and in the future, in connection with ACA's educational, informational, promotional, and advocacy-related activities. This may include use in ACA publications, presentations, websites, social media channels, emails, and other print or digital materials.

I represent that I took the photograph or otherwise have the right to submit it and grant ACA the permissions described above. I also confirm that I have obtained permission from each identifiable person shown in the photograph for ACA to use their image for these purposes. I understand that I retain ownership of the photograph, that I will not receive compensation for its use, and that ACA is not required to use or publish photographs. I release ACA and its authorized representatives from claims arising from ACA's authorized use of the photograph as described above.
