Should any ACA member reside in a state without an active branch organization, the $50 branch credit shall, at the member’s option, be credited toward membership in another branch at the member’s selection, or the branch credit shall be retained by ACA. Students, retired and other reduced dues categories shall be increased proportional to the regular membership dues structure, with membership dues credit allocated to the branch and division of the member’s selection on the same percentage basis.

Motion to Amend

It was moved by Erford and seconded by London that: Spencer G. Niles be appointed JCD Editor beginning July 1, 2008. Motion passed.

ACA Response to CACREP Revisions

ACA responded to the proposed CACREP revisions in December 2006. Given that CACREP has decided to do another revised draft, the Governing Council discussed the new draft.

The ACA Blue Ribbon Panel on CACREP Revisions will review the next draft, identify concerns and issues, seek constituent responses, followed by the panel’s review in order to identify future issues or themes that are emerging from the feedback.

The group took a straw vote and the Governing Council was in agreement to proceed as outlined.

Graduate Students of ACA

Dr. Arredondo summarized the development of a graduate student entity over the past two years.

The Governing Council members expressed their support of some form of a graduate student entity and the importance of graduate student involvement within ACA. They recognized:
• The need to do something to help support and organize the students so they feel a part of ACA and counseling profession in a more engaged way. Anything we consider should be built upon that recognition that students are the future of our profession.
• Graduates students have some unique needs and concerns.

Brian Canfield pointed out that a Graduate Student Task Force was approved with the Consent Agenda. That Task Force will be composed of student members of ACA, some of whom will be selected from the current Task Force. The Task Force will be charged with specifically looking at a way of crafting a proposal that would be acceptable to Governing Council that would create a student entity.

Suggestions for the Task Force:
• If Task Force could make available what some of the other Divisions are doing to meet the needs of students, those that are doing it and doing it well. And if the students could also reach out to the Division to make it a reciprocal relationship.
• Solicit from Divisions things that are already going on.
• This is a workgroup so it is finite. It is important to get everyone’s feedback here because this something that can be a part of the discussion process within the workgroup that does involve a number of students who have a great commitment.
• A major implication for today’s discussion is to also add to the line of inquiry and discussion for a group of concerned students, the considerations to what are the obstacles right now to fuller participation in opportunities that they are seeking in the Divisions, in Chi Sigma Iota. And could they attend specifically to idea that there might be some competition, some election procedures for a student representative on the Governing Council without needing to be separate organization.

Bylaw Changes

Brad Erford as Bylaws Committee liaison began with item number three. He called attention to the ACA Bylaws and to the Committee report provided in the Governing Council materials, and the additional document providde at the start of the meeting.

When he and President Wakefield discussed how best to resolve the difficulties that stem from the Bylaws Committee reports, they thought is best to first of all point out that these are incredibly complex issues. Anytime a Bylaw is changed there are intended consequences and unintended consequences. The original motion to add the 400 and 70% was put in, but there was a disconnect in the Bylaws between two clauses between competing articles. He stated he would like to proceed by going down the page to provide information and education about the complexity of the issue and to provide some potential solutions that could be considered by the group.

He noted the original motion by Wilson and Paisley from the fall 2005 Governing Council meeting. Dr. Erford explained the disconnect with Article IV and, specify 500 members at least 70% of whom are ACA Members. With Article IV there is different wording than with Article X that needs to be reconciled. Dr. Erford talked to Bob Wilson and confirmed the original intent of the motion was to make it so no Division could become inactive or lose their Governing Council seat regardless of the how low their membership went.
As is proper because of this conflict the attorney was consulted. The attorney’s opinion was there were two options; 1) to amend Article X to cut out the 70% so that it would read precisely as Article IV reads; or 2) to amend Article IV to be consistent with the wording in Article X. But in doing so, the attorney did recognize that the 70% clause did what it was originally intended to do, to make it so no Division could ever lose their Governing Council Representative. He suggested a change in wording to “with a minimum of 500 members, at least 70% of whom are ACA members.” Thinking that is was about the equivalent but off the mark of the original intention.

Brad Erford stated that, as Liaison of the Bylaws Committee, and having seen the documents in the information from the attorney that everybody acted in good faith here. The Chair of the Bylaws Committee did what she was instructed to do, President Wakefield and Rich Yep in their meeting with the attorney did what they were supposed to do. There was just a miscommunication which is why we are in the situation we are right now. He feels that everyone acted in good faith and due diligence.

There are two major issues to rectify or decide upon to be able to move forward with a motion. 1) Should there be a minimum number of membership – do we want to have some kind of minimum standard for membership; and 2) should a percentage that is included as a criteria and if so what is the purpose of that percent. This does not effect a Division that has the disunified dues who have lots of members. This does not affect ASCA and AMHCA at all. The 70% is when you dip below a certain number of ACA members. Divisions that have disunified due, who slip below a certain number, the 70% was meant to make sure that as long as a good portion of that membership was still an ACA member then everything was still okay.

Brad Erford noted that Division is defined in Article IV and then Division is defined again in Article X as it is related to Governing Council Representative. In Bylaws you only address an issue once. You define it in one article and then that carries the weight for the rest of it. Because Article X was amended in a previous Governing Council, we now have two places where it is defined. It is defined in Article IV as having 400 members; it is defined in Article X as having 400 members plus the 70% criterion. Originally, Article IV should have been amended and Article X should have been left the way it was.

There are a number of potential solutions:

- Solution one would be to strike Article X 1 a 3. That is the problematic clause that has the 400 and the 70%, because it is simply not needed. It is a second definition of a Division. And if you strike it, it goes back to the default Article IV which says 400 members. You could at the same time amend Article IV to include some kind of percent criterion. His first recommendation would be to strike that entire clause at some point because it is simply not needed, it is repetitive. It has created a circumstance in which two clauses in the same set of Bylaws are competing with each other for dominance.
- The second solution would be to submit a motion to amend Article IV 1 c to align with the exact wording in Article X.
- The third solution is the reverse to change Article X in order to eliminate the 70%.
- The fourth solution is simply to adopt the Bylaws motion, which he heard in discussion is not an acceptable choice to a lot of people.
- Solution five to infinity is any combination of any of the numbers and percentages that we want to discuss and entertain. You can either go with a number, or a percentage. A percent can be anything, and the number can be anything. There are an infinite number of possibilities for the language for this Bylaw.

He thinks that regardless what this body decides to do, the Article X language should be eliminated. There never should be two clauses in Bylaws that are competing.

Members were concerned about taking action that would exclude Divisional representation. Currently there are three Divisions with membership below 500: ACEG -184; C-AHEAD – 358; and NECA – 287.

Suggestions included:
- Recommendation is to go with solution 1, but to craft some additional language that provides protection to all of the Divisions. And give consideration to make enfranchising an additional Division much more difficult and to show any Division that would enter in the future would have an extreme level of viability to bring to the process. Would hate to see some arbitrary number or percentage turn people away from the table. The strength of ACA is in the diversity of the Divisions and what we each bring to the process to define the profession.
- It is really important to keep the either/or 70% in there.
- It is important to look at how effective an organization is as it shrinks and shrinks, but fears that any attention to the Divisional stuff is lost. We are approaching a crisis mode with 30,000 regular members and 10,000 student members and shrinking.
- Maybe there should be no minimum. And it can be changed again in the future.
- The question of Division viability and membership and those kinds of complex things that need to be addressed in the near future, but is a separate issue.

It was moved by Erford and second by Murphy: to withdraw the motion from the Bylaws Committee charges: Reconcile conflict between Article IV and X, Specify 500 members at least 70% of whom are ACA Members. Motion passed.

- A fiscal impact question: How much does a Governing Council Representative cost? It basically cost $2,250 per hour, per session for Governing Council to operate. $90,000 divided by 30.

It was moved by Capuzzi and seconded by Farley to: Delete Article X 1a3 and Article IV 1c from the ACA Bylaws.

Discussion of the motion:
- This gets into the area of unintended consequences. We need to retain some percentage of membership or some number of membership in any Division of any size. Otherwise there is no incentive for a Division to encourage their members to be members of ACA, because they will retain a vote on Governing Council if they have zero ACA members. Need to add an amendment to say an either or number just so we keep Divisions with an interest in encouraging their members to be members of ACA at some level. Would like to propose an amendment that would add to IV 1c, that Divisions retain....
- Request the motion be split so that we can vote on them singularly. Dr. Canfield’s amendment can address the second part of it. Technically the original motion was to strike both clauses. If the second clause does not exist; it is going to be difficult to amend, to amend it back to its current structure.

- Parliamentarian Bernal Baca commented: A way to resolve this is to have the person who made the motion do it as a friendly amendment, with a second, and just insert it. You will have to recraft the motion and this will become the main motion.

It was moved by Capuzzi and seconded by Farley that: to strike X la3 and to amend IV 1c to include “an existing Division shall maintain its full Division status and a voting member of the Governing Council with a minimum number of 400 members or 70% of its membership also be ACA members. The calculation of members of existing Divisions shall be a monthly average of qualifying members (joint members of ACA and the Division) for the preceding fiscal year. If an existing Division falls below the minimum, the Division has a period of one year to return to that minimum before such Division shall lose its full Division status and vote.” Motion passed.

President Wakefield indicated that there are two other issues that relate to the Bylaws that need to be addressed.

Brad Erford stated he would like to withdraw the motion to include a graduate student as a voting member of the Governing Council. As the Bylaw action did not address the action charge and needs additional action and work.

It was moved by the Bylaws Committee to: Accept the motion from the Bylaws Committee to make the Task Force on Branch Development a Standing Committee. Motion passed.

Discussion:

- Question: Thought the purpose of the four Regions, at their fall conference, was to provide leadership training in order to help the Branches be as strong as possible and develop. Is that not still occurring in that same way? Answer: It does occur, Branches need to have some sort of support throughout the year and not just for a Regional Meeting. There are concerns if leaders are learning how to be fiscally responsible, if they need ideas for say a newsletter, they need membership ideas, they need all kinds of things. This is a committee that is very viable, that will be going all year long, doing all kind of things to support Branches throughout the four Regions. Plus the fact of developing mentorship, that is something that can have a format that can continue until our Branches become very strong and we have good leadership in all of them.

- What this gets to beyond the Regional training, is that we have several Branches that are inactive. This would be a more formalized way for each Region to provide that mentorship, or to try to jumpstart some of those inactive groups. We hope the end result would be a reoccurrence of membership at the Branch level, which would also hopefully impact at the national level.

Sunset of Standing Committee

- It was moved Canfield and seconded by Severson that: Article XII add Section 5. "Sunset of Standing Committees.” Each standing committee shall automatically “sunset” (cease to exist) after five years of existence, unless affirmed by Governing Council upon recommendation of the Executive Committee. Affirmed standing committees shall be reinstated for an additional period of five years. Motion passed

Committee and Task Force Reports:

President Wakefield assigned small groups to review the Committee and Task Force reports. Summaries from Committees and Task Forces:

Human Right Committee: Their work is in process and seems to be moving ahead. The group was unclear of Charge 1, unsure from whence this charge came in terms of context – what specifically the charge was or way it was given. The Committee was also confused because they asked for the Governing Council to provide prioritization. Our recommendation, if this group was to really focus on policies and a review of policies, then everything else would fall from that rather than micromanage by looking at products themselves.

Research and Knowledge Committee: Recommendations to get more specific about when they are going to complete those tasks and get the information circulated. Not to take too long on that.

Signature Products Task Force: It is time to move into action. Encourage them to move into the next step which is to develop a timeline and particular action steps.

International Committee: No action required. It is not a full Committee report; it is a report from one of the sub-committee. That sub-committee is focusing on how to develop international partnerships. The International Committee as a whole has done a very good job – has good things planned for the conference and is already thinking about next year.

Public Policy and Legislation Committee: Has a motion regarding a recommended maximum ratio of students P12 to school counselors of 250 to 1. President Wakefield stated the motion would be addressed under new business.

Bibliometrics Task Force: This is an incredibly important area for people seeking tenure in counselor education positions. This Task Force will be continue in the next year and our hope is to get more of our own family of editors, from our family of journals, to pointed discussions and bring back recommendations to Governing Council next year.

CACREP Task Force: Asked for an action in the form of directing the President to appoint a member of Governing Council as a liaison to CACREP for the purpose of attending to and enhancing, improving, and continuing a long standing positive relationship. The motion will be entertained under new business. Accreditation is an important way that we define our professions, because it talks to how we prepare people to do what counselors do.

Nomination and Election Committee: The group had the most discussion relative to the procedures that we have following for notifying candidates who been elected to president to ACA and Divisions. The Past President is responsible for calling all the ACA Candidates to inform them the outcome of the election. No problem there. The Past Presidents is then charged with calling all the sitting presidents and chairs with the election results. Those presidents and chair are notified when they would be receiving the call. The success rate in reaching presidents and chairs was 30% or less. No one was sitting at the phone waiting for the call. Had one phone call back from those she could not reach.

Tried to follow a more formal procedure, was first do the protocol of calling the sitting president and chair and follow up with a written letter. If we do not get a call back, then contact the candidates directly and let them know the outcome. We did not get specific about who would make the calls. We need to have a new procedure for notifying candidates.

When was the last time we had a review of the Hare system which is the procedure we use for the elections. How long have we been using it? When was the last time we have reviewed?
Rich Yep responded: The Hare system has been in place for as long as he has been there. Does not remember any Governing Council ever deciding they wanted to change it, but if that is what the body wants, we can start exploring how you would rather have it done.

Dr. Arredondo continued: There weren’t people saying let’s go change it. More the question was how long have we used it, are there any concerns about it? And if there are any concerns, who would evaluate it? It came out more as seeking information.

Item number 2 on the report, the Nomination and Election procedures for an Ethnic Minority Representative on Governing Council. The Nominations and Election Committee was charged to develop criteria for the election of an Ethnic Minority Representative. After she pulled together the information, she developed a draft and describes particular background qualifications. In the small group, they changed: 1) eliminated bullet #3 – Has demonstrated leadership as member/leader of Divisions of AGLBIC, AMCD, CSJ, C-AHEAD, and/or ACA Committees. And also bullet number 4; active mentoring of ethnic minority persons, as opposed to students.

Professional Standards Committee: We were confused what the committee charge was, and minutes from last spring are missing. We think there was a motion at one point in time, but we are not quite sure. We would like for them to go out and find out which Divisions also have mentor programs and come back with some suggestions on how to implement the mentor program.

President Wakefield provided additional information: She copied the motion directly from our minutes and sent it to them, which in essence said something about having a mechanism to develop a mentorship program. We can go back and review that with them.

Emerging Leaders Task Force: The Task Force addressed the issues surrounding identification, training and mentoring of potential ACA leaders. The work of this Task Force is still in process.
They gave us some ideas of what they are working as it relates to their guiding questions for their tasks. They have about five guiding questions, and gave us some templates for a leadership development handbook, with training outlines. Their full report will be completed by June 30, 2007.
Selection of Representative to the Executive Committee and Nominations and Election Committee

The group selected Region Representatives and a Division Representatives to sit on the following two committees:

Representative to Executive Committee:
Division Representative: Brad Erford
Region Representative: Nita Jones

Nominations and Election Committee:
Division Representative: Ned Farley
Region Representative: Laura Jo Severson

20/20 A Vision for the Future of Counseling

The AASCB (American Association of State Counseling Boards) presidential team came to ACA presidential team to ask for help regarding their Portability Initiative at the Atlanta Convention. Specific problems with the difference in the licensing laws including title, difference scopes of practice, and educational requirements. Want to standardize the licensing laws to make portability easier. The presidential teams had a discussion and it grew from there and morphed into the 20/20 A Vision for the Future of Counseling. The Presidential teams said why don’t we go beyond licensure. Why don’t we look at where we want to position the profession of counseling in the year 2020 proactively? Here is where we want to be in the year 2020, what are the needs we need to address to be a profession in the year 2020. The oversight committee became those two presidential teams.

The oversight committee decided they wanted to start from scratch and involve and invite all of the major counseling associations to be involved. We have twenty-nine associations involved, each with a delegate. The delegates started from scratch. First they looked at what were the issues we need to be address. By consensus seven areas were identified. They are 1) Strengthening identity, 2) Presenting counseling as one profession, 3) Improving public perception of counseling, 4) Creating licensure portability, 5) Expanding and promoting the research base of professional counseling, 6) Focusing on students and prospective students, and 7) Promoting client welfare and advocacy.

Delegates broke into workgroups to address each of the seven areas. Each of the workgroups has been working on each of these areas with ideas and has just finished the 2nd draft for a meeting at the ACA Convention on March 22. The goal is to come up with specific ideas in each of these areas to move the profession forward to where we want to be in the year 2020. If we get a large number of organizations endorsing these ideas, will move the profession forward.

Old Business:

Consent Agenda – Logo Policy

The logo policy defines who could use the ACA Logo for business purposes.
People to People Ambassador Program

It was moved by Farley and second by Lopez-Baez to: accept the Logo Policy and People to People Ambassador Programs Delegation Leader Selection Policy. Motion passed.

Ethnic Minorities Representative on Governing Council

It was moved by P. Arredondo and seconded by N. Jones that: The Bylaws Committee create language to establish the election of an ethnic minority representative to serve on Governing Council. Motion passed.

Point of information from President Wakefield: The financial impact was already taken care of and the amount was $2,700.

Patricia Arredondo provided some history regarding the motion: This precedes her administration. The observation was there aren’t always people around the table who are of ethnic minority heritage. If we want to create inclusion, we want to have this as a safeguard. Today, we can say we have good ethnic minority representation. That has not always been the history and this was an attempt to put something in place going forward.

There are some description sets of qualifications, including the self identification, perhaps what she omitted to say this would be an At-Large member. That would be the new language that the Bylaws Committee would have to craft, because we do not have At-Large members per se. It is not in the motion; it is in back up information for the Bylaws Committee to work with.

Questions: Would this person be a voting member and is it something the Bylaws Committee to consider? Answer: It would be something Bylaws would have to consider.

Graduate Students of ACA

It was moved by Arredondo and seconded by Manis that: The Bylaws Committee be directed to create a Council of Graduate Students within ACA. Motion defeated.

President Wakefield reminded the group: Currently, we have a working group that will go from here. From now until June 30 we will be doing some work on where we are and could perhaps make some recommendations or could work collaboratively with the Bylaws Committee.

The working group has vowed to have something to the Executive Committee by June 1.

Patricia Arredondo provided the list of individuals that are on the working group: Renee Middleton, Amie Manis, Marie Wakefield, Brian Canfield, Patricia Arredondo, Randy Burwell, and Brad Erford.

Brian Canfield asked President Wakefield to include James Devlin, his appointment as student representative for 2007-2008. President Wakefield said she would take it under advisement.
Signature Product Task Force

Pam Paisley provided information about the Signature Product Task Force: It has been in existence for the past two years. Two years ago this Task Force was asked to brainstorm and generate ideas. They produced three ideas; wellness, crisis responses; and multicultural training and strategies related to the ethical standards. The small group yesterday reviewed the Task Forces report and encouraged them to go forward with what was there and to do it in a timely manner. Basically what she is going to be suggesting in the motion is that we go forward with the development of a product or combination of products related to multicultural training and strategies based on the ethical standards and a Task Force would be charged with putting together a concrete proposal toward that end that would go to the Publications Committee. That action plan would have a timeline that would be expeditious.

It was moved by Paisley and seconded by Lopez-Baez that: a Task Force be charged with the development of an action plan for a signature product related to multicultural strategies and training based on the ethical standards. It is further moved that this action plan should be based on the principles and ideas generated by the previous Signature Product Task Force and should include (a) a timeline and (b) identification of individuals with expertise in multiculturalism, social justice, ethics, advocacy, and marketing to develop a proposal for a product or combination of products for submission to the Publications Committee and/or Governing Council. Motion Passed.

CACREP Liaison

It was moved by CACREP Task Force that: The ACA President annually appoints a member of the Governing Council to serve as a liaison to CACREP. Motion passed.

New Business

2008 ACA Conference Rebate

It was moved by Canfield and seconded by Brawley that: Financial Affairs Committee shall authorize up to $20 of 2008 conference registration to be rebated to the division or branch of each registrant’s selection or retained by ACA as the registrant may designate. Motion passed.

Brian Canfield provided the rational for this motion: To create a sense of ownership on the part of the Branches and Divisions in the 2008 ACA Conference. There are two major implications; 1) the Divisions do not get a rebate from the conference registrations. There is currently no financial incentive for the Divisions to encourage their members to attend the ACA Conference. This would create a very real financial incentive for the Divisions and Branches. 2) It is important reaffirm that ACA is about its member constituent groups. The Divisions are ACA and ACA are the Divisions. We are under the same umbrella. This goes a long way in sending a message that ACA is sensitive to that, we want to be a part the same whole and we want the Division to a part of ACA effort with that.
President Wakefield pointed out that anything with a fiscal impact had to go to the Financial Affairs Committee before we do any voting. In our policy it must go to the Financial Affairs Committee.

Brain Canfield requested a point of order: The nature of this motion says Financial Affairs Committee shall authorize. This provides the endorsement of Governing Council that allows the Financial Affairs Committee to review and act upon this.

Feedback from the Treasurer Thelma Daley: To help craft the language. It is not to abort the policy at all. If you pass it, there is some leeway, because it could go from zero to twenty.

Feedback from the Parliamentarian Bernal Baca: The policy – G. All Governing Council agenda items must have a financial impact statement. Financial impact statements will include a cost benefit analysis and cost implementation analysis. It does have an impact and you need to have that information before you can approve a motion.

Rich Yep commented: From the staff perspective, if you just raise the price, there is cost sensitivity to our attendees, you cannot just say raise the cost by $20 and let it be a wash. Because we may not have as many people show up. That is something the Financial Affairs Committee would have to take into consideration if the motion is passed.

Roll Call Vote was called for and the following was the tally: Yes = 9; No = 8; Abstention = 6

Report from CACREP – Jack Culbreth, Chair, Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs and Carol Bobby, Executive Director, Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs

Jack Culbreth thanked President Wakefield for the invitation to be here today.

Highlights of his report:

• The discussion is ongoing with CORE, the possibility of a merger with CACREP and CORE. Those conversations are still going on. It is going on very positively. Met two weeks ago in Chicago and out of that meeting is a package of documents and prospective merger agreement to present and vote on at each of their July meetings.
• Moving forward with the move in April or May.
• A vote was passed at their January Board meeting, due to a number of the new initiatives to postpone by one year the vote and implementation of the Standards, which will allow for a third draft full public commentary. There will be such significant issues brought forward in the next draft that were not in draft two, it would be irresponsible of us not to get the public feedback. We are at this point talking about the 2009 Standards. Regarding the standards, he would like to public acknowledge and say thank you for the article in Counseling Today, support those four major issues.
• New position announcement, a Director of Accreditation. Just to be clear, Dr. Carol Bobby is not leaving. We are doing some restructuring and trying to grow the organization. This will allow Carol to move into a larger, big picture area of her position.

And cooperating the ACA, AMHCA and the different state organizations are working together.

- NBCC International (branch) has recently opened international offices. Not only have we been concentrating on domestic issues but also issues world wide as well. In October 2006 hosted first international congress of counseling in New Delhi, India. Brought together people from all over the world, who are interested in serving and finding a way to serve those people who are never served. Worked with World Health Organization to organize it.
- Three other projects NBCC is doing with the World Health Organization. 1) The Atlas Project. Seeking out mental health counselors, not psychologists or psychiatrists, but counselors, in as many worlds as we can find. 2) The Suicide booklet has been completed and has been translated into seven languages for eight professions. 3) The Mental Health Facilitator is an ongoing project with World Health Organization and hope to have it in the bag shortly.
Next month will be testing which will bring number of certificants to 42,000. We are very grateful that we have been able to maintain standards in counseling. NBCC is accredited by the National Competency Assurance Program. NBCC has been accredited with them since 1988, have been a member and actively involved in their leadership.
